Read a New Book Month

Introduce students to two new titles that deal sensitively with tough topics. One is Tess Hilmo's With a Name Like Love (Margaret Ferguson Books, 2011), a compelling story set in 1957 in rural Arkansas that reflects the true beauty of friendship and honesty. Download a free discussion guide (<http://tesshilmo.com/books/>). Tami Lewis Brown's The Map of Me (Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 2011) is a tender novel about being lost and being found.

Margie and her obnoxious sister Peep hop in daddy's Ford and travel the backroads of Kentucky in search of momma. Download a free activity kit for the novel (<http://www.tamilewisbrown.com/>). Grades 4-8.

DECEMBER 27

Howdy Doody TV Premiere—1947

Not only was Howdy Doody a television show, it was also a comic book from 1950-1956. Have students find out more about the history of comics and introduce them to many celebrated cartoonists in the newly published book Nursery Rhyme Comics: 50 Timeless Rhymes from 50 Celebrated Cartoonists! (First Second, 2011). Grades 4-9.
